

Demonstrations at Hongkong International Terminals Limited

[Singapore, 3 April 2013] Further to our news release on 1 April 2013, there has been further development with regard to the demonstrations at Hongkong International Terminals Limited ("HIT"), a subsidiary of Hutchison Port Holdings Trust ("HPH Trust"). HIT (and COSCO-HIT Terminals Limited ("CHT"), the operator of Terminal 8 East at Kwai Tsing, Hong Kong, owned as to 50% by HPH Trust) has obtained an interim injunction from the High Court of Hong Kong ("HKHC") in the evening of 1 April 2013 and demonstrators have since vacated HIT's terminal premises in an orderly manner.

To that effect, Hutchison Port Holdings Management Pte. Limited, as the trustee-manager of HPH Trust (the "Trustee-Manager"), is now able to work towards bringing HIT's terminal operations back to normal. Nevertheless, demonstrations are continuing outside of HIT's terminal premises and the Trustee-Manager is continuing to work towards resolving the industrial actions with the parties involved.

HIT, CHT and their legal counsel will also be returning to the HKHC this Friday 5 April 2013 for an order to maintain the granted injunction.

The Trustee-Manager continues to believe that the current event does not have a material adverse impact on the performance of HPH Trust and will continue to provide updates of a material nature to unitholders of HPH Trust as and when appropriate.

~ End ~

About HPH Trust

HPH Trust is a container port business trust listed in Singapore.

HPH Trust's portfolio consists of interests in deep-water container port assets located in Hong Kong and Shenzhen, PRC, two of the world's busiest container port cities, as well as certain port ancillary services of river ports complementary to the deep-water container ports operated by HPH Trust.

HPH Trust's principal investment mandate is to invest in, develop, operate and manage deep-water container ports in the Guangdong Province, Hong Kong and Macau, one of the world's largest trading hubs.

HPH Trust is managed by Hutchison Port Holdings Management Pte. Limited with the key objective of providing unitholders with stable and regular distribution as well as long-term distribution per unit growth.